

Fortunato Lambiase is currently Head of the Technical Secretariat of the Minister of economy and finance, prof. Giovanni Tria.

He is a Senior Parliamentary Official of the Italian Senate, where he is Head of the Budget Service's Office for Research into the Budgetary Impact of Legislation, and member of the Working Group on the Analysis and Evaluation of Public Policies. In the framework of the Senate Accounting Office, he provides advice and budgetary assistance.

At the World Bank Group Lambiase has been Advisor of the Executive Director representing the governments of Albania, Greece, Italy, Malta, Portugal, San Marino, and Timor-Leste.

Prior to joining the Senate, Fortunato was Head of the Office of the Minister of Public Administration and Innovation and, formerly, Senior Advisor to the junior Minister responsible for the Interministerial Committee for Economic Planning. He passed a public competition for being recruited as Official in the Tariffs Department of the Italian Electricity and Gas Regulator.

He holds a degree in Economics, 110/110 cum laude, from Luiss "G. Carli" University of Rome, received a LL.M. in Competition Law & Economics cum laude, from Erasmus Universiteit at Rotterdam, and earned his Doctorate in Law & Economics at Luiss "Guido Carli" University.